

A&W Technical Solutions

Warranty/Guarantee

All products repaired by A&W Technical Solutions are warranted to our customer against defects in our material and workmanship for a period of 6 months from the date of our repair invoice.

The liability of A&W Technical Solutions. under this warranty is limited to the replacement or repair, at our choice, of any defective component(s) free of charge to our customer.

Freight and rush fees for returned product remain the responsibility of the customer.

Adjustment is contingent upon our examination of the repair and that the apparent defects have not been caused by misuse, abuse, improper installation or application, unauthorized repair during the warranty period, alteration, accident or negligence in use, storage, transportation or handling.

We must be notified of any warranty claims before the end of the warranty period, together with return of the claimed defective product within this same period.

A&W Technical Solutions. shall not be liable for consequential damages for injury to persons or property or commercial loss or otherwise.

A&W Technical Solutions. is not a distributor sanctioned by the original manufacturer and we are not a party to any manufacturer's warranty that may or may not apply.
